

ADITYA BIRLA GROUP

HUMAN RIGHTS POLICY

Aditya Birla Group recognises the valuable role that business can play in the longer-term protection of human rights. The Group Companies are committed to respecting the human rights of our workforce, communities and those affected by our operations wherever we do business (including our contractors and suppliers) in line with internationally recognised frameworks.

Our commitment entails respecting human rights and seeking to avoid involvement in human rights abuses, identifying, assessing and minimising potential adverse impacts through due diligence and management of issues, and resolving grievances from affected stakeholders effectively”.

Every Aditya Birla Group Company endeavours to achieve our commitment by:

- Maintaining positive legal compliance with applicable constitutional and regulatory human rights requirements and conforming to the Aditya Birla Group Sustainability Framework;
- Undertaking an iterative, due diligence process, the focus of which is identifying, assessing and managing potential risks and impacts;
- Aligning our existing policies, processes and activities with our commitment to respect human rights, including those that apply to labour practices, engagement with indigenous peoples; land acquisition, supply chain, and security management;
- Promoting awareness of the human rights with employees at various levels of our operations through training and communication;
- Engaging with stakeholders in an inclusive, transparent and culturally appropriate manner on human rights concerns related to our business activities;
- Valuing diversity, equal opportunity and the need to consider the rights of vulnerable groups such as indigenous peoples, women, migrant workers and other minorities;
- Prohibiting all forms of harmful child labour, forced / trafficked labour, discrimination and harassment;
- Providing access to remedy by resolving grievances in a timely and culturally appropriate manner;
- Influencing our contractors, suppliers and other organisations with whom Aditya Birla Group has a leverage to adopt our Sustainability Framework and to encourage and support the development of equivalent management systems;
- Developing goodwill, creating sustainable employment and stimulating economic opportunities in the communities that host our activities;
- Establishing clear accountability by assigning adequate resources and responsibilities for effective management of human rights risks; and
- Continually improving human rights performance by sharing good practices and learnings, setting and reviewing targets, and monitoring, reporting and disclosing performance.

Each Aditya Birla Group Company shall sign up to this policy or develop an equivalent that shall be implemented throughout its operations.

This policy shall be reviewed periodically for its suitability and updated as necessary.
